

WCC Mathematics & Writing Labs

Tutoring labs are now available at Wytheville Community College. There are labs for both Mathematics and Writing, and both are located on Wytheville's main campus in the Academic Resource Center (ARC) in the lower level of Bland Hall. These tutoring labs are staffed by full- and part-time faculty of the college, along with specially-trained student tutors who will work with you one-on-one. Specific days and times for each lab can be found every semester in student emails, as well as in the ARC .

You are encouraged to stop by either tutoring lab as you experience issues with which you feel you need some extra help. The cost is free for students at the college—we are here to help YOU!

Math Lab Information

From arithmetic to statistics to calculus, the math lab provides help where you need it the most. Computers are available for use if you need to access online homework. Be sure to bring your materials from class so that you know specifically what it is that you would like help with.

The Math Lab is located in room 102B in Bland Hall, and is open from 10:00am to 4:00pm, Monday through Thursday, during both fall and spring semesters. If a tutor is unavailable, the lab is still open for you to visit to use the computers or to just have a quiet room to focus on math.

If you have questions regarding the Math Lab at WCC, please contact Jason Lachniet at 276-223-4710 or wclachj@wcc.vccs.edu .

Writing Lab Information

The Writing Lab provides one-on-one tutoring with the development and revision of your writing assignments. Essays, resumes, cover letters, and research papers are just a few of the projects that you can bring in for assistance. The tutors in the lab will not write your paper, but are there to help you in developing ideas and getting you on the right track. And, you can expect honest feedback, suggestions, and guidance from our Writing Lab staff.

The Writing Lab is located in room 102A in Bland Hall, and is available during both fall and spring semesters. If a tutor is unavailable, the lab is still open for you to work quietly.

If you have questions regarding the Writing Lab at WCC, please contact Martha Holder at 276-223-4732 or wcholdm@wcc.vccs.edu .