

TEACHER EDUCATION STEM SCHOLARSHIP

OPPORTUNITY

2011-2012

VIRGINIA
SPACE GRANT
CONSORTIUM

The objective of this opportunity is to encourage talented individuals to pursue professional studies leading to a teaching certification in the sciences, technology education and mathematics (STEM). The Virginia Space Grant Consortium awards a one-year $1,000 scholarship to undergraduate or graduate education majors while attending a member institution full time. This is a competitive scholarship program and awards are based on merit recognizing high academic achievement and promise. Underrepresented minority students, female students and students with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

Sponsor:

The Virginia Space Grant Consortium (VSGC) is a coalition of five Virginia Space Grant universities (College of William and Mary, Hampton University, Old Dominion University, University of Virginia, and Virginia Tech), the Virginia Community College System, NASA, state educational agencies, and other organizations representing diverse aerospace education and research interests.

Eligibility:

- Must be a U.S. citizen
- Must be enrolled in one of the five Virginia Space Grant Consortium member institutions at time of award.
- Must be a current full-time student (minimum of 12 credit hours)
- Must be majoring in a teacher education program with a STEM subject concentration
- Must have a grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale
